

MISSING SERVICE HISTORY

MISSING SERVICE

Missing service is any service you have worked as an eligible employee which is not reflected in your Statement of Service held by Coal LSL.

If you believe your service history record is missing periods of qualifying service, you can apply to have this matter investigated by Coal LSL. Depending on the period of qualifying service and your current service history record, as held by Coal LSL, different criteria must be met for eligibility to apply.

SUBMITTING AN APPLICATION

You can apply to Coal LSL by completing an Application for Recognition of Eligible Service. Evidence is required to substantiate your application. Types of evidence that can be provided are outlined in the application form.

ELIGIBILITY

To accrue a black coal mining industry long service entitlement, you must be considered an eligible employee as prescribed by the Coal Mining Industry (Long Service Leave) Administration Act 1992 (the Administration Act). Under section four of the Administration Act, an eligible employee is defined as:

- a) an employee who is employed in the black coal mining industry by an employer engaged in the black coal mining industry, whose duties are directly connected with the day to day operation of a black coal mine; or

- b) an employee who is employed in the black coal mining industry, whose duties are carried out at or about a place where black coal is mined and are directly connected with the day to day operation of a black coal mine; or
- c) an employee permanently employed with a mine rescue service for the purposes of the black coal mining industry; or
- d) a prescribed person who is employed in the black coal mining industry; but does not include a person declared by the regulations not to be an eligible employee for the purposes of this Act.

TRANSITIONAL SERVICE REVIEW

AM I ELIGIBLE TO APPLY?

If your record is missing service that took place prior to 1 January 2012, you must have at least one day of service in the 2012 calendar year (recognised by Coal LSL) to be eligible to apply.

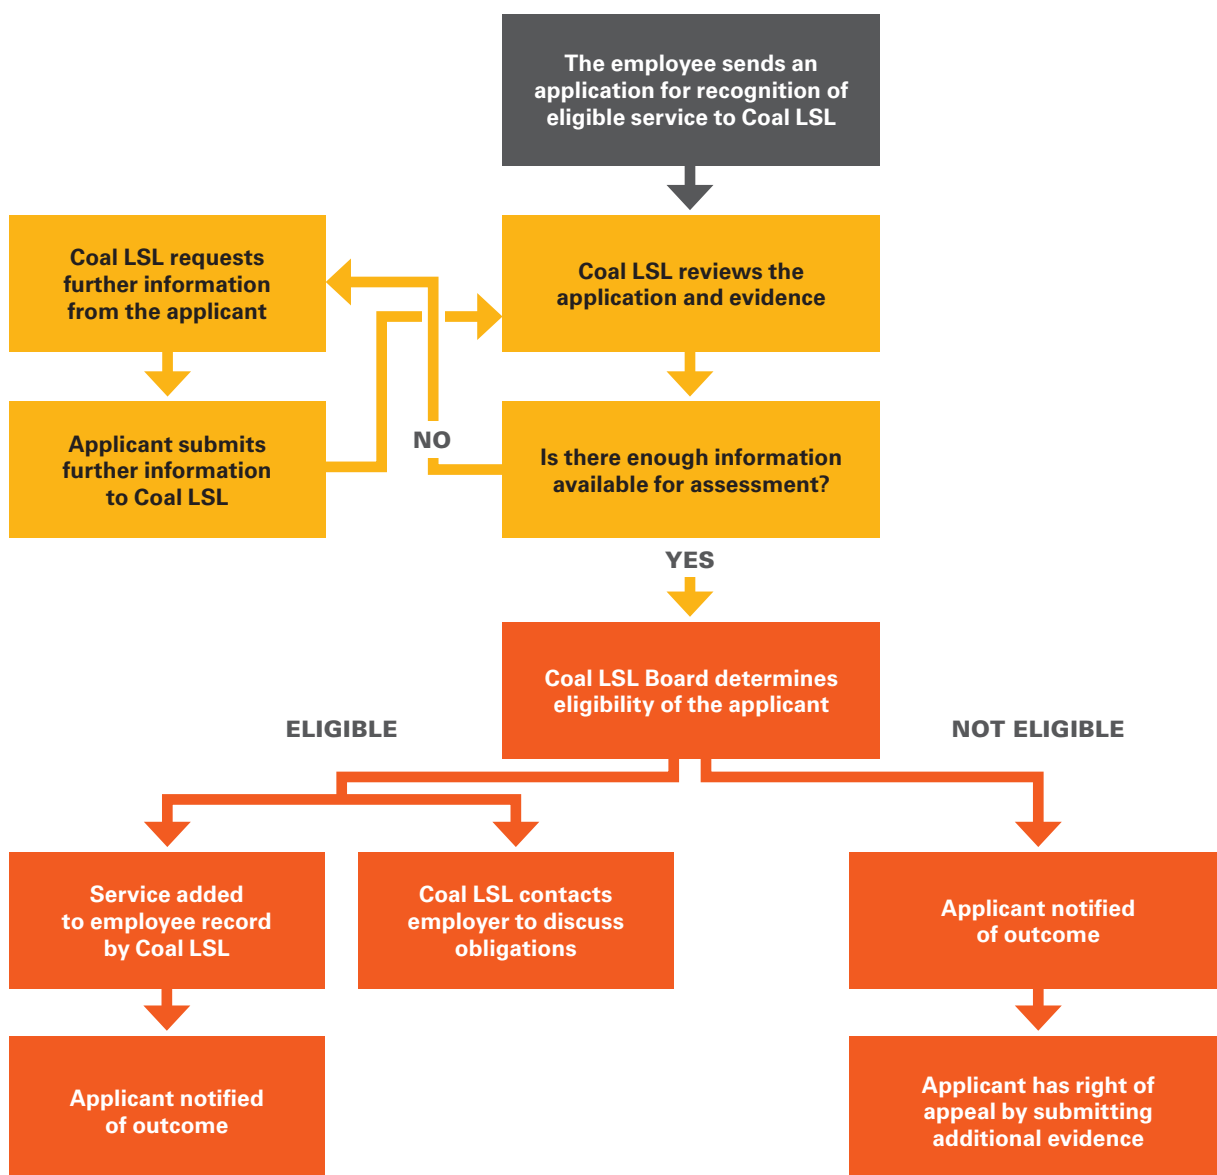

This is a requirement of the Coal Mining Industry (Long Service Leave) Legislation Amendment Act 2011 (the Amendment Act). If you do not have one day of service in the 2012 calendar year, you cannot apply to have your pre-1 January 2012 service recognised.

Should Coal LSL investigate, and subsequently recognise, missing service for you in the 2012 calendar year, any service prior to this date will then be considered.

WHICH PERIODS OF SERVICE CAN BE INVESTIGATED?

Provided you are eligible to apply to have your service recognised, the Amendment Act allows Coal LSL to investigate any missing service retrospectively to 1 January 2000 (inclusive).
