

Fraud Reporting Guide

Corporation's commitment to Fraud Management

The Coal Mining Industry (Long Service Leave Funding) Corporation (Coal LSL) is committed to good governance practices and providing a quality service to all stakeholders. To support Coal LSL achieve this objective, a Fraud framework has been developed and implemented to actively prevent, detect and manage fraud.

As part of the Fraud framework, Coal LSL also supports the reporting of alleged fraud activities by stakeholders. This Fraud Reporting Guide has been developed to assist stakeholders in reporting alleged fraud activities to Coal LSL. This Fraud Reporting Guide is also supported by the Coal LSL Fraud Strategy Statement which can be found on the Coal LSL website.

All alleged fraud activities reported to Coal LSL are taken seriously and dealt with in a swift, transparent and impartial manner.

This Fraud Reporting Guide is to be used by stakeholders who want to report an alleged fraud to Coal LSL and to ensure that appropriate, factual and relevant information is provided by the individual/organisation reporting the fraud.

How do I report an alleged fraud to Coal LSL?

The quickest way to report an alleged fraud is to complete and submit the online Fraud Reporting form found on the Coal LSL website.

Alternatively, you can write to us detailing the alleged fraud at admin@coallsl.com.au or send a mail to:

The Corporate Services Manager
Coal Mining Industry (Long Service Leave Funding) Corporation
Locked Bag 2021
Newcastle NSW 2300

Can I report an alleged fraud anonymously?

Yes, you can report a fraud anonymously. In the event Coal LSL requires further information to investigate the allegation, we will be unable to contact you which may impact upon the alleged fraud investigation process. Coal LSL will also not be able to provide you with updates about or the outcome of the alleged fraud investigation.

If I report an alleged fraud to Coal LSL, what information should I provide?

An alleged fraud must be submitted to Coal LSL in writing detailing the alleged fraud and providing copies of all documents supporting your allegation.

As a minimum the following information must be provided:

- i. When did the alleged fraud take place?
- ii. How did you become aware of the alleged fraud?
- iii. Details of individuals/organisation involved in the alleged fraud.
- iv. Detailed description of the alleged fraud including details of what occurred, how it occurred, where it occurred, why you consider the conduct to be corrupt and any other relevant details relating to the alleged fraud.
- v. Has this alleged fraud been reported to any other organisation/agency, and if so, what response have you received?

In order to undertake an investigation based upon the information you provide, it is crucial that all known information is provided. The more factual information you provide the greater the opportunity for a successful investigation. The provision of insufficient or no information to support an allegation may result in no additional action or investigation being able to be taken.

We should also be notified if you have any special requirements such as an interpreter. If you retain a third party to act on your behalf we will communicate with that third party provided we receive your signed authorisation.

What happens once I report an alleged fraud with Coal LSL?

Once Coal LSL receives your alleged fraud submission, we will notify you in writing of receipt.

The Board of Coal LSL will assess the severity and complexity of the reported alleged fraud and determine the most appropriate investigation methodology. We will also log your alleged fraud on our internal fraud register. If you have not reported the alleged fraud anonymously, we may contact you for further information during the alleged fraud investigation process, provide you with updates and when the investigation is complete, inform you of the outcome.

When I report an alleged fraud, how is the information I provide handled?

The information provided when you report an alleged fraud will be used by Coal LSL for the purposes of investigating the alleged fraud only. Coal LSL will use all reasonable measures to protect any such information from being used for any other purpose other than the investigation of the reported matter.

All information provided to Coal LSL will be handled in a confidential manner and in accordance with Coal LSL's Privacy Policy and other applicable legislative requirements.

If I am dissatisfied with Coal LSL's fraud investigation process or if I do not want to report the alleged fraud to Coal LSL, what other options do I have?

In the first instance, all alleged fraud matters should be reported to Coal LSL for investigation.

In the event you do not want to report the alleged fraud to Coal LSL, or are dissatisfied with Coal LSL's investigation process, you may refer the matter to the:

- i. Australian Federal Police directly by completing the 'Report a Commonwealth crime' form found on their website (Further information on what constitutes a Commonwealth crime can be found on the AFP's website here); or
- ii. any other relevant authority or agency.